On January 8, 2021, Christopher Nguyen filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.<sup>2</sup> (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) resulting from an influenza vaccine received on September 11, 2020. Amended Petition at 1. Petitioner further alleges that the vaccine was administered in the United States, his injury lasted longer than six months, and neither Petitioner nor any other party has ever received compensation in the form of an award or settlement for Petitioner’s vaccine-related injury.

Amended Petition at ¶¶ 10-11; Ex. 6 at ¶ 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On June 7, 2023, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent agrees that Petitioner's claim meets the Table criteria for SIRVA, in that "petitioner had no history of pain, inflammation or dysfunction of the affected shoulder prior to intramuscular vaccine administration that would explain the alleged signs, symptoms, examination findings, and/or diagnostic studies occurring after vaccine injection; he more likely than not suffered the onset of pain within forty-eight hours of vaccine administration; his pain and reduced range of motion were limited to the shoulder in which the intramuscular vaccine was administered; and there is no other condition or abnormality present that would explain petitioner's symptoms." Id. at 5. Respondent further agrees that "the records show that the case was timely filed, that the vaccine was received in the United States, and that petitioner satisfies the statutory severity requirement by suffering the residual effects or complications of his injury for more than six months after vaccine administration." Id. Respondent also notes that Petitioner avers that neither he nor any other party has received compensation in the form of an award or settlement for his vaccine-related injury. Id. Thus, Respondent concedes that entitlement to compensation is appropriate. Id.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
